1. Confirmation of commencement of journey, and reconfirmation of onward your journey including departure and arrival airport terminals, and change(s) in departure and arrival timings is the responsibility of the traveler.
2. Do not travel if you or your associate travelers feel unwell. The transportation companies such as Airline(s) / Hotel(s) / Airport(s) / Vehicle Transportation may be screening for infection(s) and may refuse you travel at origin, or not allow you to enter at transit or destination.
3. All bookings are accepted and processed under our terms and conditions which are available on request.
4. The Travel arrangements mentioned above do not necessarily protect you from the supplier (airline, accommodation provide, cruise supplier etc.) from going into administration. We strongly recommend that you take our travel insurance which protects against supplier failure or contact one of our consultants for a quote.
5. Please note timings are subject to change. Any re-issue / re-validation / cancellation of ticket will incur an administrative fee.
6. Visa documentation, passport validity, health precautions along with any reconfirmation of flights is your responsibility.
7. Passengers travelling to/ or via USA/CANADA: will require an ESTA at least 72 hours prior to travel, even for transit purposes.
8. Children under 18 travelling to South Africa and Botswana: All minors travelling will be required to carry certified copies Birth Certificate, and if only one parent is travelling, certified written consent from the other parent to allow the child to travel.
9. If there are any long (or overnight transits), include multiple transit points enroute within a country, it is the passenger's responsibility to make the necessary accommodation and visa arrangements.
10. Many Airlines have restrictions on checked in baggage. Please check any specifics with your airlines / transport provider. Example: Power Banks, E- Cigarettes, Lighters, Party Poppers etc. may not be permitted in check in baggage
